CIN - Volcanic Chilli Pepper

The fine and exquisite Cin chilli has a high intensity, with a score of 150,000 on the Scoville scale, making it arguably one of the strongest chillies found in traditional Turkish cuisine. . With its vegetal notes and aromas of dried fruits, this pepper penetrates the heart of your palate and reveals its volcanic character.

KAPYA - Vegetarian Chilli Pepper

Kapya pepper is a vegetarian variety typical of Turkish cuisine that scores less than 100 on the Scoville scale, which places it below paprika in terms of intensity. Let yourself be surprised by its sweet taste and its attractive aroma that will remind you of dried tomatoes, with subtle notes of chocolate as a final touch.

KAYACA - Torrid Chilli Pepper

Kayaca is a hot pepper variety, traditional in Turkish culture, with a heat level of around 50,000 on the Scoville scale, similar to Tabasco. This spicy pepper has a fruity aroma, with hints of citrus fruits, whose spiciness and unequalled identity will delight lovers of chilli.

KALE - Warm Chilli Pepper

The Kale variety is certainly the tastiest of all Turkish cuisine, amazing and refined, it is highly sought after and has won many competitions in Turkey. This exceptional pepper has a score of around 3000 on the Scoville scale, equivalent to the Espellete pepper. Its fruity taste, combined with aromas of hay, as well as a slight bitterness and a warm spiciness are the strength of this king pepper, fleshy and juicy.
